

Here you'll find the latest news and events from Airport Regions Conference. These news items are presented more in depth on www.airportregions.org

March-April 2010

28 April 2010

EC Vice President makes statement on possible measures to overcome ash cloud crisis

Siim Kallas, Vice President of the European Commission, made 27 April a statement on the economic impact of the volcanic ash cloud crisis on the air transport industry. "I have today informed the College of Commissioners on a possible package of measures to help the air transport industry to overcome this difficult crisis."

Read more»

22 April 2010

"The aviation industry goes green" - Clean Sky Conference in Brussels 18 June

The Clean Sky Conference in Brussels 18th June 2010 will address the latest developments in the Clean Sky programme, highlighting the major technical steps to be taken in the near future.

Read more»

14 April 2010

ACI Medium Term Traffic Forecast Results: Uneven Demand by Region

The recovery seen at the end of 2009 continues in 2010 and medium term improvements are largely driven by economic development in emerging markets while recovery for mature markets continues to be more fragile.

Read more»

13 April 2010

SESAR: First complete transatlantic green flights

The two first complete (gate-to-gate) green transatlantic flights were operated on 6 and 7 April 2010 from Paris-Charles de Gaulle to Miami airports (Source: Air Transport News)

Read more»

7 April 2010

ARC president to speak at EU-Latin America Civil Aviation Summit in Rio de Janeiro, 24-26 May 2010

The ARC president Anne Devitt will speak at the first EU-Latin America Civil Aviation Summit in Brazil, during the session Airport Infrastructure & Airport Policy.

Read more»

7 April 2010

ARC workshop on Air Traffic Management and spatial planning interdependencies

ARC members and other stakeholders in aviation are invited to a pilot workshop in Amsterdam 15 April developed by Airport Regions Conference, ARC in association with NLR and Eurocontrol.

Read more»

29 March 2010

Working towards a new White Paper: What sustainable future for transport in Europe?

Ile de France Europe and EURO CAREX invite you to take part in a debate 14 April surrounding sustainable future for transport in Europe as well as to the presentation of the EURO CAREX project, a future European freight service on the existing high speed rail network.

Read more»

29 March 2010

Commission takes important step towards optimising use of European airspace

The European Commission has adopted rules on how to manage the flow of air traffic in order to optimise available capacity in the use of airspace.

Read more»

29 March 2010

AirRail 2010 on Transportation Trends and Investments and Opportunities

The International Conference AirRail 2010 will take place at Lyon Airport, 18 - 19 October 2010.

Read more»